Component Mission:

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Foster and cultivate strategic alliances and professional networks with interagency partners and other community elements to facilitate priority attention on National Intelligence Strategy, NIM Africa's UIS, and other national level strategic guidance documents.

Maintain situational awareness of significant issues affecting NIM Africa and the broader community and alert senior NIM Africa and ODNI / DDNI/II staff regarding emerging issues that affect the office.

Lead development and continually expand personal expertise in facilitating the cooperation and effective coordination of organizations within ODNI, the IC, and other (U.S) Government agencies.

Lead cross-ODNI collaboration to ensure customer requirements and priorities align with IC mission, goals and objectives in Africa as they address progressive policy requirements, collection emphasis, and federated community production.

Lead the development and preparation of internal and external memoranda, tasking responses, and other correspondence, to include policy analysis documents in response to tasking from policymakers.

Engage counterparts on tactical coordination issues to ensure effective implementation of flagship collaboration initiatives.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

Establish plan, promote, and share information and knowledge within ODNI and with other government agencies, and effectively recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

Mandatory Requirements:

Expert knowledge of IC organizations; IC mission posture, structures, capabilities, processes, and policy development.

Superior ability to anticipate issues relevant to the IC and United States Government and recommend/implement needed actions.

Superior leadership skills and ability to lead interagency planning efforts, working groups, and initiatives to synchronize and advance UIS objectives.

Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

Superior oral and written communication skills with demonstrated ability to view substantive and administrative issues, exert influence to senior leadership, communicate effectively with people at all levels (both internal and external), brief management on reviews and findings, and organize and edit written reports of varying length and complexity.

Superior ability and demonstrated experience in establishing, cultivating, and maintaining relationships with national level decision-makers, Intelligence Community leadership, and policymakers at the National Security Council.

Desired:

Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically and identify needs, requirements, and develop innovative recommendations and solutions for improvement.

Superior knowledge of the IC's analytic and/or collection architecture as related to Africa, and expertise working on the Africa target across multiple intelligence disciplines.

Superior knowledge of the budget processes, particularly as they relate to the Africa target.
